

NEVER STOP LEARNING & GROWING 1

"Wisdom excels folly as light excels darkness." Ecclesiastes 2:13 NKJV

The most important skill you can acquire is learning to learn. Gifted people can sometimes act like they know it all, which makes it hard for them to keep growing. Teachability isn't so much about competence and mental capacity, as it is about attitude; it's an innate hunger to grow. It's a willingness to learn, unlearn, and relearn. The famous football coach John Wooden said, 'It's what you learn, after you know it all, that counts.' Only as you remain teachable will you keep growing and continue to make an impact on the world around you. Lifelong learning is an ongoing daily pursuit. The Roman scholar Cato the Elder started studying Greek at eighty years old. When asked why he was tackling such a difficult task at his age, he replied, 'It's the earliest age I have left.' Unlike Cato, many of us regard learning as an event, instead of a lifelong process. It's estimated that only one-third of adults read an entire book after leaving school. Why? Because they view education as a period in life, not a way of life.

Science confirms that while your physical body may atrophy, your mind retains much of its capacity for continued growth. Every stage of life presents lessons to be learned. You can choose to be teachable and keep on learning, or you can close your mind and stop growing. Try this simple experiment...for a week: ask others for their advice...deliberately withhold the advice you would normally give...and at the end of each day write down what you have learned by being attentive. Gather all the various counsels you receive and study them. You will be amazed!

TESTIMONY CORNER

This is my first time in church and I really enjoyed the service. The worship time was touching. The pastor mentioned something I was passing through and I held on to the word 100%, and will run with it throughout the week because it was meant for me. May God bless the preacher. Sis. D

I've learnt a lot about living a life of purpose. The worst thing that can happen to a man is not just dying, but living a life on earth without purpose. Purpose begets focus, while focus begets intention, which leads to motivation. -Bro. A

TO GIVE YOUR LIFE TO CHRIST, PLEASE SAY THIS PRAYER:

I believe in my heart that Jesus Christ is the son of God. I believe that he died for my sins and was raised from the dead for my justification. And I confess him now as my Lord

SNIPPETS FROM LAST SUNDAY

Topic: Be Still and Know that I am God
Scripture: Psalm 46: 1-11

1. This is a call from heaven, to the unsatisfied, the seeker, the confused, the limited
2. We are safe and secure in the assurance of who he says he is
3. God can be trusted to see you through the issues of life, when you're waiting
4. The relevance of God is not an option
5. You're exchanging your weakness for the strength of God

HYMN

Amazing Grace

1. Amazing grace (how sweet the sound) that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!
3. Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come:
'tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.
4. The Lord has promised good to me,
his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.
5. Yes, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
and mortal life shall cease:
I shall possess, within the veil,
a life of joy and peace.
6. The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
the sun forbear to shine;
but God, who called me here below,
will be forever mine.
